This copy was secured by Vince Koers in April 2002 from Sally Parkinson Richmond. It contains several hand-written additions by Sally pertaining to her family.

It is missing several pages which may have been blanks intended for adding future information. These pages have been added back into this copy to avoid the confusion of apparently missing pages.

The book consists mainly of the information collected by Maurice Archbold about the family, An Index to the family, and the main family information section.

THIS CHARTER OF W. H. JONES, ESQ.

To the readers of these pages and to the members of the ARCHBOLD FAMILY.

Every effort has been made to have all the material in this book correct. If any reader discovers an error please communicate with me giving proof of error so that correction can be made.

At an early age I learned that an ancestor had been a soldier in the American Revolution. As I grew to manhood the desire to know more about this ancestor grew with me. About twenty-five years ago I started to gather data to prove my lineage to this Revolutionary Soldier Thomas Archbold, of whom I had heard my father speak.

I found the work so pleasant and so fascinating that after securing the proof of my lineage to Thomas Archbold the Revolutionary Soldier I began to search for all his descendants.

Because of the great pleasure to me in this work I have spent many months of time and traveled many thousands of miles collecting data and proving its authenticity.

For years my hobby has been genealogical research; visiting libraries, browsing in old cemeteries, collecting data from grave markers, hunting thru old bibles, questioning old settlers, visiting both old and young members of the family for the purpose of collecting material for the Archbold Family Tree.

Without the cooperation of friends and members of the family this history could not have been compiled. To them I wish to acknowledge my sincere gratitude.

The starting point, in all published family trees, is with some living member of a family and then trace each line of ancestors as far as possible. In this book I have reversed the process and started with the earliest authentic Archbold ancestor (I have found many earlier Archbolds but have not found the lineage connection.) and recorded all the descendants I have been able to find. The person who receives this book will find, at the end of each generation, enough blank pages to record and carry forward indefinitely, a record of his own family.

ARCHBOLD FAMILY

"The ARCHBOLD FAMILY came from Ireland to America." This is the information handed down from generation to generation in my family. My ancestor probably came between 1675 and 1725.

To my knowledge there were three ARCHBOLDS that came from Ireland to America, there may have been others. Without doubt these three families came from a common ancestor in Ireland, but I have been unable to connect them authentically. The first to arrive came sometime before 1736, I do not know the exact year. This book is a partial history and genealogical record of the first family of Archbolds to arrive in America.

The second to come was James Archbold.

"John D. -Isreal-James, Ire. to Va. about 1803."

"William D. -Isreal-James, Ire. to Va. 1803."

The descendants of James Archbold have had an important part in the social, commercial and industrial life of America. There are many of his descendants living in America today, but they are not included in this book.

"Charles Wesley Archbold (see above) visited the "Archbold Demesne" in County Kildare, Ireland, while on a trip abroad about 1902. At that time there was a Miss Eleanor Archbold, a maiden lady of perhaps fifty years of age, living there. She told of others of the name Archbold living at or near Crookston, County Kildare."

The above quotation is from a letter to me from Mrs. Alta L. Wall of Portland, Oregon. Mrs. Wall's mother, Mary Archbold, was a daughter of Edward Archbold whose father, James, (see above quotation from Magazine of American Genealogy,) came from Ireland about 1803. James Archbold was born 1767, County Kildare, Ireland.

VIII
The third Archbold, of whom I have a record, came from Ireland sometime between 1850 and 1860. Mr. A. A. Archbold of Chicago, Illinois, is a descendant of this Archbold.

There are many records of the ARCHBOLDS in England, Ireland and Scotland from 1273 to the present time. A few of them are listed here.

THE ENGLISH FAMILY OF ARCHEBOLD OF ALNWICK

Taken from

MISCELLANEA GENEALOGICA HERALDICA

New series E-67-58-Vol. 1.

"The Archbolds were a family of importance in Alnwick for at least a century and a half. The first recorded was William Archbold D.D. born 1618, died 1700 at the age of 82 years. In 1650 William Archbold D.D. was Vicar of St. Peters, Cornhill London. He was at South Park in 1650 and John the last of them in Alnwick died there in 1805."

"Successive members of the Archbold family were Bailiffs to the Earls of Northumberland, tenants of Cawledge South Park and owners of considerable property in the Parish of Alnwick."

"Their coat of arms was, A lion rampant between six fleur-de-lis. Their crest was, A fleur-de-lis."

"Argent, Semee of Fleurs-de-lis. A lion rampant sable, is the coat of William Archbold D.D. Sometime Vicar of St. Peters, Cornhill, London."

"Oliver Cromwell secured the condemnation and execution of Charles 1st. (1649). After reducing Ireland to submisaion he attacked the Scottish Royalists, defeating them at Dunbar (1650) and Worcester (1651). Cromwell died an 1658."

After defeating the Irish, Cromwell sent many English and Scotch subjects of the British Empire into Ireland. They were given large tracts of land and in return they were obligated to maintain a certain number of English soldiers in Ireland to keep the Irish subdued.

This, no doubt, is the way the Archbold family got into Ireland and the date would be at about the time William Archbold D.D. was vicar of St. Peters, Cornhill London (1650).

As our family was in America before 1736 it seems, that if they came from Ireland, they probably came between 1675 and 1725.

Patrick Archbold and his wife, Mary, were living at "Crooked Billet" in Chester County, Pennsylvania, in 1755 when their eldest child, Thomas Archbold the Revolutionary Soldier, was born.

In a letter to me in 1929 (see page XIX) the Pension Commisaioner put quotation marks on "Crooked Billet" the birth place of Thomas Archbold. This seems to indicate that the Pension Office knew of no "Crooked Billet" in Pennsylvania at the time of writing the letter to me. I have been unable to locate the camp or barrack, and as 1755 was during the French and Indian War, it seems to indicate that "Crooked Billet" existed only during that war. Also that Patrick Archbold was connected with the army at that time either as a soldier or civilian employee of the government.

At this date (1938) the date of Patrick's birth is unknown. It is supposed that he was born about 1725, Neither is the place of his birth known. Probably his parents came from Ireland but whether Patrick was born in America or Ireland is not known at this time. The search for this information about Patrick's birth will go on.

Elizabeth Archbold (widow) was living in Bucks County in 1736 when she took land warrants for 200 acres of land. Patrick Archbold was living at "Crooked Billet" in Chester County in 1755 when his eldest son, Thomas Archbold the Revolutionary Soldier, was born. Stephen and John Archbold were married in the Sweden Church in Philadelphia in 1754 and 1769. As these Counties in Pennsylvania are adjacent and were not very thickly populated at that time and as the dates coincide, it seems to indicate that Elizabeth Archbold (widow) of Bucks County was the mother of Patrick of Chester County and John and Stephen of Philadelphia.

Patrick Archbold moved from Chester County to Westmoreland County some time before the Revolutionary War as Thomas, the record shows, was living with his parents in Westmoreland County when he enlisted in 1777. Patrick probably bought land when he first went to Westmoreland County but the earliest record I have found is 1797. (See below.)

PENNSYLVANIA ARCHIVES CONTINENTAL LINE 1777-1783.

"Patrick Archbold took land warrants deed for 400 acres of land in Westmoreland County Pa. Jan. 16th. 1797."

Patrick Archbold died in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania about 1802.

Her husband (name unknown) was killed by the Indians during the Revolutionary War.

John Archbold (son of Patrick and brother of Thomas the Revolutionary Soldier) had one son under sixteen years of age and three daughters living with him in 1790 when the first census was taken. From the Will and the marriages shown above it is quite probable that Sarah Ann Archbold was the wife of John's son (name unknown) and the mother of Betty, Biddy, Libby and Margaret.

In my search for the Revolutionary War record of Thomas Archbold, the eldest son of Patrick, the following quotations were taken from:

PENNSYLVANIA ARCHIVES CONTINENTAL LINE 1777-1783

FIFTH SERIES Vol. 4 page 425:

"Thomas Archbold, private Westmoreland County Militia."

THIRD SERIES Vol. 23 page 227:

XIII

At the annual reunion of the Archbold family at Blue Lake, Indiana, in August 1925 the "Association of the Descendants of the Revolutionary Soldier Thomas Archbold" was formed. Maurice J. Archbold of Chicago, Illinois, was elected president and Chellis H. Archbold of Fort Wayne, Indiana, was elected secretary and treasurer. Both are still holding these offices. (1938)

At the annual meeting in 1937 at Ossian, Indiana, on motion of William J. Archbold of Decatur, Indiana, Maurice J. Archbold was elected permanent president of the association.

Altho considerable data on the history of the Archbold family had been collected prior to 1925, the forming of the association created an added desire to know more about our common ancestor, Thomas Archbold the Revolutionary Soldier.

To gather data for the family history; Libraries have been visited, many people have been contacted, cemeteries have been searched and many letters have been written. Here are a few of the letters which show a small part of the work that has been done to gather authentic material. They also show that many letters received have contained little or no information of value.

Dear Sir: In my search of the Pennsylvania Archives at the Foxberry Library, Chicago, I am unable to secure a few dates which I need. The Librarian in charge of the Genealogy Department suggested that I write to you.

I would like to get the date of birth, death and marriage of THOMAS and MARY ARCHBOLD. I am listing these on a separate sheet enclosed.

THOMAS ARCHBOLD was a Revolutionary Soldier from Donegal Township, Westmoreland County. He also was the head of a family of four children in 1790 when the first census of Pennsylvania was taken. His marriage was earlier than 1782 which is the date of birth of his son Patrick.

I also would like the date of marriage of Patrick Archbold to Francenia Metain (McLean). Patrick, the son of Thomas and Mary Archbold, was born in Donegal Township, Westmoreland County and, I understand, was married there. Patrick's oldest child was born in 1807.

Trusting you will be able to furnish these dates and thanking you in advance, I am

Yours truly

Dear Sir: Your letter of yesterday, relative to members of the Archbold family, has been referred to this office.

The recording of births and deaths was not required by Act of Assembly in this Commonwealth until 1894, and the taking out of licenses to solemnize marriage was not required until 1885. We searched our will indices to ascertain the date of the death of Thomas and Mary Archbold but could find no reference thereto.

Accordingly we are unable to be of any assistance to you in your search.

My dear Mr. Archbold:

Your letter addressed to the Adjutant General has been referred to this office as all the records of the War of the Revolution are in the Division of Archives.

The name of Thomas Archbold appears as entitled to Depreciation Pay for service in the Militia of Westmoreland County. His name also appears among the rangers on the Frontier from Westmoreland County.

If you desire a certified copy of this service, will be glad to send it to you for the fee of $1.00 as required by an act of Assembly.

I regret to state our records do not contain any information relative to the Soldiers age

A man named Thomas Archbold was pensioned in Harrison County, Ohio, service Pennsylvania Militia, 1833, age about 80 years. Possibly the Pension Commissioner at Washington D. C. may be able to furnish you with a more complete record of the service of Thomas Archbold.

In the "Heads of Families 1790", the only Census ever published, Thomas Archbold was living in Donegal township, Westmoreland County. His family consisted of one male over 16, one male under 16, and four females.

Hoping this information will be of service to you,
I remain,

Very sincerely,

Sir:

I advise you from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, S. 2348, it appears that Thomas Archbold, pensioned Archibald, was born in 1755 at "Crooked Billet", Cheater County, Pennsylvania.

While residing with his father (his name is not given) in Leganzer or Leganwer Valley, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, he enlisted and served as a private with the Pennsylvania Troops as follows:

In 1777, five months in Captain Samuel Shanon's Company; in the winter of 1777, two months in Captain Samuel Shanon's Company in General Hand's campaign and was in a skirmish with the Indians; in the summer of 1778, three months in Captain Samuel Shanon's company, and later three and one-half months in General McIntosh's campaign.

XX

After which he moved to the Youghiogheny River, Fayette County, Pennsylvania, where he served two and one-half months in Captain Bell's Company. He was also in several scouting parties.

XX

In 1806, he moved to Jefferson County, that part which was later Harrison County, Ohio, and in 1820 moved to Tuscarawas County, Ohio, where he was living when he applied for pension, April 8, 1835.

There are no data as to his family.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Winfield Scott

Commissioner.

It is evident that Thomas Archbold, the Revolutionary Soldier, did not own any land prior to 1783, as the following Tax Record shows.

PENNSYLVANIA ARCHIVES CONTINENTAL LINE 1777-1783

THIRD SERIES Vol. 22 page 537

A Tax Record

"Thomas Archbold listed personal property of one horse and one cow and paid three shillings taxes."

In the same volume I found a tax record of Richard Archbold of Donegal Township, Washington County, Pennsylvania. Although Washington and Westmoreland Counties are adjacent I have been unable to connect Richard Archbold with our family. He probably was a brother of Patrick, the father of Thomas the Revolutionary Soldier.

Richard Archbold ~~Archbold~~ listed property as follows:-
100 acres of land, personal property of two horses and one cow.

HISTORY OF OLD ZION CHURCH

A meeting was held in 1774 at Fort Allen, Pennsylvania, and a petition was sent to the Governor of Pennsylvania protesting against what is known as Dunmore's War between western Pa. and western Va. Richard Archbold was one of the signers.

XXI

During the trouble in western Pennsylvania in 1792 known as the "Whiskey Rebellion" Thomas Archbold again served in the Pennsylvania Militia. The following quotation is from:

PENNSYLVANIA ARCHIVES CONTINENTAL LINE, 1777-1783

SIXTH SERIES VOL. 5 page 675.
Militia Pay Rolls, 1790-1800.

"Thomas Archbold served from July 1, 1792 to August 8, 1792 in western Pennsylvania. For this service he was paid $3.80." (He received ten cents per day for thirty-eight days service.)

Thomas Archbold moved his family from Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, to Jefferson County, Ohio, in 1806. Later that part of Jefferson County in which he lived became Harrison County. In 1820 Thomas moved to Tuscarawas County, Ohio, and about 1835 or 1836 he went to live with his youngest son, Thomas Jr., in Root Township, Adams County, Indiana where he died March 17, 1837. He is buried in the Reynolds Cemetery which is located three miles north of Decatur Indiana. A fine white marble stone marks the grave. This fine grave marker was secured from the United States Government through the efforts of Mrs. John T. Myers (Drusilla Hower, p. 9.) a great-granddaughter of Thomas Archbold the Revolutionary Soldier. The stone was erected by a group of the descendants then living at or near Decatur, Indiana.

On July 19, 1936, at the close of the annual Archbold reunion and picnic, which was held at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Gilpen, (Elizabeth Archbold, p. 10.) near Decatur, Indiana, more than two-hundred members of the family gathered at the Reynolds Cemetery and unveiled the monument. The American Legion, the United Spanish War Veterans and the Veterans of the Civil War, 1861-1865, co-operated with the members of the family in holding appropriate dedicatory services. The monument was unveiled by John T. Myers II, a great-great-great-grandson of Thomas Archbold the Revolutionary Soldier.

The program at the unveiling of the grave marker is given here:

Five of Thomas Archbold's children, Patrick, Sabantha (Sibby) who married Jeremiah Andrews, Sarah Ann who married Perry Andrews, Martha who married Hazel Andrews and Thomas Jr. moved, with their families, to Indiana. They all moved during the years 1835 to 1847. Thomas Jr., the youngest of the family, moved in 1835 and settled in Root Township, Adams County, where he lived until his death in 1871. Thomas Jr. was one of the early pioneers of Adams County. He moved to Adams County one year before the site was chosen for the County Seat, Decatur.

in 1847

Patrick, the eldest of the children, moved to Indiana, and settled in Jefferson Township, Wells County, where he died at the age of 74 years. He was 65 years of age when he moved to Indiana and lived there but nine years. He probably moved to Indiana because his only brother, three of his sisters, all of his own children and his father had moved there and not to get a new start in life in a new country.

While living in Harrison County, Ohio, Patrick held the office of Justice of the Peace. He was a farmer. The story is told that, when the call came for him to leave for service in the War of 1812, he left his team of horses standing where he had been working. He went to the house, secured his rifle and ammunition, with the help of his wife packed three days rations and marched away with his Company which was in command of Captain William Stoakes. He served in the First Regiment of Ohio Militia under Lt. Colonel John Andrews.

Below is a copy of the letter of inquiry I made in 1928 in regard to Patrick Archbold's service in the War of 1812.

Adjutant General of Ohio
Columbus, Ohio

Dear Sir: In tracing the Archbold family history I am told that Patrick Archbold served in the United States Army during the War of 1812. That he enlisted from either Harrison or Tuscarawas County and was 27 years of age and married.

Can you furnish me with the date of enlistment and length of his service, also the company and regiment in which he served.

Hoping you can and will furnish this information, I beg to remain,

Yours truly

(Signed) Maurice J. Archbold

The Adjutant General

I have possession of Patrick's family bible and in this bible where he has written the name "Archbold" he has written it in such a way that the "l" and "d" run together and could easily be taken for the letter "b". This accounts for the error of some clerk copying the name "ARCHBOLD" instead of Archbold. The underscoring of the name "ARCHBOLD" in red, in the above letter indicates that the Adjutant General's office is satisfied that an error in copying the name had been made.

The following story was told to me by an older member of the family who remembered Patrick and his wife, Francenia, and called them Uncle Pat and Aunt Fanny.

"Uncle Pat and Aunt Fanny were packing the covered wagon for the trek to the "wilder of Indiana" in 1847 and found the choosing, of the things to go from the things not to go, a very difficult job. When the wagon was nearly loaded to its capacity the question arose of choosing between a grind-stone and some smoked meat. Uncle Pat won the argument, the grind-stone went on the wagon. The loss of the argument was not soon forgotten by the canny Scot, Aunt Fanny. On arrival at the new home-site, the unpacking barely finished, Aunt Fanny handed a butcher knife to Uncle Pat saying, "go cut a piece of meat from the grind-stone, I want to get supper."

I have in my ^{possession} a rocking chair that belonged to my great-grandmother, Francenia (McClellan) Archbold the wife of Patrick. The chair was given to me by my father, Ezra B.
Archbold (page 6.) He said he could remember seeing his grandmother sitting in this chair and hearing her tell the chair's history and how they got it. The chair, she said, was hand made and that she and Patrick brought it with them from Harrison County, Ohio, in 1847. They got the chair from the man who made it in exchange for an ox.

All of Patrick's children were born in Ohio. Six of his brother Thomas' children were born in Ohio and two in Indiana. In 1835 Jeremiah, the second son of Thomas Jr., was taken to Indiana by his father. He was six years old at that time. He spent his entire life as a farmer in Root Township, Adams County. He was Justice of the Peace for eighteen years and, altho he tried many cases, no decision of his was ever reversed by the higher courts.

The biography of Thomas Archbold, (Called Wells County Tom) son of Patrick and grandson of the Revolutionary Soldier, in BIOGRAPHICAL and HISTORICAL RECORD of ADAMS and WELLS COUNTIES, INDIANA, published by the Lewis Publishing Company in 1887, is typical of the primitive life led and the hardships endured by the early pioneers of Indiana.

BIOGRAPHY OF THOMAS ARCHBOLD

"Thomas Archbold, retired farmer, Ossian, was the son of Patrick and Francenia (McLean) Archbold, who were born in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania. His grandfather, Thomas Archbold was born in Virginia, the grandmother, Mary, was of Welch ancestry. The McLeans were of Irish origin. They remained in Pennsylvania, and the Archbolds removed to Harrison County, Ohio, and later to Tuscarawas County same State."

"In 1848 the parents of our subject, with a part of their children, came to Wells County, settling in Jefferson Township, on a tract of land now owned by Martin Heckle."

"Their children were— Joseph, John, Thomas, William who died in infancy, Lettice, Ann, Mary, Francenia, Sarah A. and Rebecca. All were married and came to this County except Sarah...."

"....Our subject was born in Harrison County, Ohio, September 19, 1811. He was married in Ohio to Miss Phoebe Valentine, and five of their children were born in that state. They came to Wells County and made a location in the Fall of 1848. Samuel (deceased), Robert, John, Mary J. and Emmet E. were born in Ohio, Francenia, Lydia and James were born in Jefferson Township."

"Mr. Archbold purchased his land for $200.00. Not a stick had been cut except by the roving hunter, and the work of making a home in the new country devolved upon Thomas and his eldest son. A cabin was built on the northeast corner of his land, where his family spent the winter of 1848-1849."

* The Revolutionary War record, as given by the Commissioner of Pensions' letter on page XII, shows that Thomas Archbold was born at "Crooked Billet" in Chester County, Pennsylvania, and not in Virginia.

"Their house was fitted with furniture made by Richard Trenary. He is now deceased. Benches were made of basswood, and bedsteads were made by putting a hole in a log which formed one of the walls of the cabin, then by setting a post on the floor into which two holes were bored and sticks inserted at right angles that were lashed together with strips of basswood bark, upon which the bedding was placed. Mr. Archbold was not alone in this primitive manner of house furnishings; it was almost universal in the new country."

"The early settlers were mostly poor people, and for the first ten years Mr. Archbold depended almost entirely upon the manufacture of black salts for the money necessary to support his family. As the timber was burned, the ashes were gathered and placed in a great leach, which was drained and the lye evaporated in kettles until it became stiff. This was sold at about $3.00 per hundred pounds, and found a ready market at Fort Wayne and other towns. The timber was very heavy and it took years of toil to make a small farm."

"To add to the misfortunes of Mr. Archbold, he was attacked with rheumatism the next spring after he came to the county, and those were the darkest hours of his life; for without money, the spring time at hand, and the song of the axe that was heard on every tract except his own, made the time pass slowly. His neighbors came in and showed by kindly acts that he was not only welcome, but was highly appreciated in the new country."

"He thinks their attention made him a better neighbor than he otherwise might have been. As every cloud has a silver lining, so were the lonely hours then spent to be dissipated by joy and succeeding prosperity. His first crop was a good one, and from that time he has been prosperous. He has bought and sold several tracts of land, and his ventures have been successful in every respect...."

"....The log cabin has long since been replaced by modern buildings, and the great oaks have been removed from the fertile soil. While these changes have wrought a complete revolution on the face of the country, it has changed the young to the old; the old man who sits by a glowing fire surrounded by his children and grandchildren, with wealth at his command, is hardly recognized as the pioneer of forty years ago. His hair is streaked with gray, but his mind is keenly alive to the scenes and incidents of the early days."

"Mr. Archbold served several terms as Township Trustee, also as Assessor; but he has repeatedly refused to become a candidate for official position. His first presidential vote was cast for Andrew Jackson. He has been a member of the Presbyterian Church since 1850, and helped to build the first church in the township."

The Archbold family came to America when the country was new and were among those early pioneers who pushed our civilization westward. The family is now spread across the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Its members always have had an important part in the business, social and political life of the community in which they lived. At one time an effort was made to compile information on the occupations, professions and businesses in which the family were engaged. After considerable work the effort was abandoned because it was found that members of the family were engaged in practically every known business, profession and occupation. Part of that work was continued and a partial list of those who have held public office is given below.
